

Taster Sessions

Know Your North Pennines is a great training programme for anyone working with visitors to the North Pennines.

The next programme starts in autumn 2010 and will run for two years. Look out for news of our taster sessions – find out what it's all about, and talk to people who have been on the previous course.

Know Your North Pennines gives you:

Greater knowledge and understanding of the unique qualities of our fantastic area;

- Some great days in the company of enthusiastic experts;
- Loads of background information and a folder of reference material;
- Access to a network of people working in sustainable tourism across the North Pennines; and
- A quality mark which you will be able to use in your business.

Can you afford to miss it?
